

DONATIONS BY OLC TO INDIVIDUALS AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS (POLICY)

The College is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in addition to a tribal entity of higher education established by Oglala Sioux Tribe Ordinance 02-14. OLC must comply with the requirements of Ordinance 02-14 on the expenditure of funds, the United States Internal Revenue Service Requirements on the donation of funds by a 501(c)(3) organization to individuals and other entities, and this Policy. This includes requirements established by statute, regulation, and private letter rulings.

1. OLC will not donate funds to individuals. This does not prohibit OLC from disbursing grants and scholarships to its students in accordance with OLC Policies on grants and scholarships.
2. OLC shall not donate any funds to non-profit and for-profit entities or to any entity for the purpose of lobbying.
